To Whom It May Concern:

Jon Seidel has associated with me and my two companies as a consultant for a little over two years. He has helped us very much. He brings in fresh ideas and perspectives. He listens. He asks good questions. He has an array of fellow consultants to bounce ideas around with or to refer directly to us in specific areas of knowledge.

I wholeheartedly recommend him to any business that wants, or needs, consultative services.

You may call me for further questions and information .

Sincerely,

Louis J. Buty
President
